Personal Prayer Time based on the Disciples' Prayer

Overview

There is no single prescribed method for spending time alone with God, but the following outline can serve as a helpful starting point. Personalize and modify it as needed. For example, you may want to break this outline into smaller segments to fit your schedule. Some disciple makers focus on their relationship with God (parts 1 and 2) in the morning, and do more intercession and spiritual warfare (parts 3-7) in the afternoon or evening.

Getting Started

1. Intimacy, worship, and thanksgiving — "Our Father in heaven, …"

- Pause and center your thoughts on the presence of God.
- Relate to God as your gracious, loving, heavenly Father. Share what is on your heart with him.
- Meditate on his attributes.
- Sing songs to him or pray one of the Psalms out loud.
- Tell God what you are grateful for–specifically, things you notice throughout your day.
- Spend time simply enjoying his presence and communing with him. For example, picture him sitting with you. Listen for his "voice" and consider what he is saying to you. Write it down. Talk to him as you would your closest friend.

2. Consecration — "hallowed be your name, …"

- Ask God to show you areas of your life where he wants you to be holy as he is holy.
- Surrender every part of your life to him and his purposes.
- Declare his lordship over your life and make yourself totally available to do anything he asks of you.

3. Petition, intercession, and declaration — "your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. …"

The kingdom of God is where God's rule and reign have been established — essentially, where what he desires to happen actually takes place. When his kingdom comes, heaven is experienced in people and places on earth. This includes healthy relationships, freedom from addictions, deliverance from strongholds, physical health, salvation, peace, joy, etc.

Take time to listen and be sensitive to things God leads you to pray for.

- List and then pray for areas in your life where you need to experience more heaven on earth.
- List and pray for people in your family who need to experience more of heaven on earth.
- List and pray for other disciples who need to experience more of heaven on earth.
- List and pray for people or places in your community that need to experience more of heaven on earth.
- Pray for five people who don't know Jesus (maybe one person daily).
    - Ask God to draw them to himself.
    - Pray that their minds will be open to the truth of the gospel.
    - Ask God to bind the enemy and any hindrances that keep them from receiving him.
    - Command any strongholds that are holding them captive, such as fear or unbelief, to be broken.

4. Pray for provision — "Give us today our daily bread. …"

Take time to listen and be sensitive to things God leads you to pray for.

- Ask for things you and others need to fulfill his mission. This could include deeper intimacy with God, more love, power, courage, anointing, opportunities, health, physical and financial provision, safety, and wisdom.

5. Confession and forgiveness — "And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. …"

Take time to listen and be sensitive to things God leads you to pray for.

- Spend time in listening prayer, being sensitive to things the Holy Spirit leads you to confess.
- Receive God's forgiveness, and pray he will give you power to change in these areas.
- Ask God to forgive others in the same manner Jesus prayed: "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing" (Luke 23:34). This could include family members, friends, enemies, and people who live in your neighborhood or city.

6. Spiritual warfare — "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

- Pray for protection for yourself and others (emotional, physical, mental, and spiritual).
- Pray against the four areas where the enemy commonly attacks (accusations, temptations, fear, and deception).
- Pray that you and others will have strength to resist temptation and turn away from it.
- Pray that any strategies and tactics of the enemy will be broken.

7. Pray that God receives all the glory — "For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever."

- Tell God that you want him to receive all the praise and all the glory.
- Make yourself totally available to do anything God asks of you in making Jesus known.
